Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 28 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry with clear or sunny spells.

Today:
Any early cloud and patchy rain or drizzle in north and west soon clearing to leave a fine and sunny day. Feeling warm, especially away from coasts, with light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
After a dry and clear start to the evening, some low cloud will begin to push inland from the north coast. Chilly in places. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
Mainly dry and sunny. However low cloud and patchy light rain may feed across northern coastal areas and penetrate inland bringing temperatures down. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Largely dry and bright on Wednesday and Thursday, especially across eastern areas, some warm sunshine. However north coasts cloudier at times. Friday perhaps seeing some showers.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.